

PRECINCT PLAN IMPLEMENTATION

The City of Port Phillip is proposing to plant new trees on Fulton Street, St Kilda East, as part of the implementation of the Urban Forest Strategy.

The planting proposal is guided by the principles and recommendations of the Balaclava and St Kilda East Urban Forest Precinct Plan.

PROPOSAL

- 5no. new Lophostemon confertus planted in new tree plots within the footpath, on the northern side of the street.
- 4no. new Elaeocarpus reticulatus planted in new tree plots within the road, on the southern side of the street.

PARKING

78no. Existing (estimated)
78no. Proposed

LEGEND

- Proposed tree
- + Existing tree

PROPOSED SPECIES

Lophostemon confertus

Elaeocarpus reticulatus

Greening Fulton Street, St Kilda East Tree planting plan

April 2026

