

PRECINCT PLAN IMPLEMENTATION

The City of Port Phillip is proposing to plant new trees and understorey on Raglan Street in St Kilda East, as part of the implementation of the Urban Forest Strategy.

The planting proposal is guided by the principles and recommendations of the Balaclava and St Kilda East Urban Forest Precinct Plan.

PROPOSAL

- 13no. Ulmus parvifolia 'Burnley Select in the existing nature strip, on the eastern side of the street (2026)
- 18no. "Seed to Success Council Trialling Program" trees in the existing nature strip, on the western side of the street (2027 and 2028)
- 1 existing tree removed
- biodiverse understorey planting

PARKING

No changes to existing on-street parking

LEGEND

- Proposed tree
- ⊕ Existing tree
- ⊖ Existing tree to be removed (by others)
- VicTrack land
- Opportunity for biodiverse understorey planting
- Existing understorey planting

PROPOSED SPECIES

Ulmus parvifolia 'Burnley Select

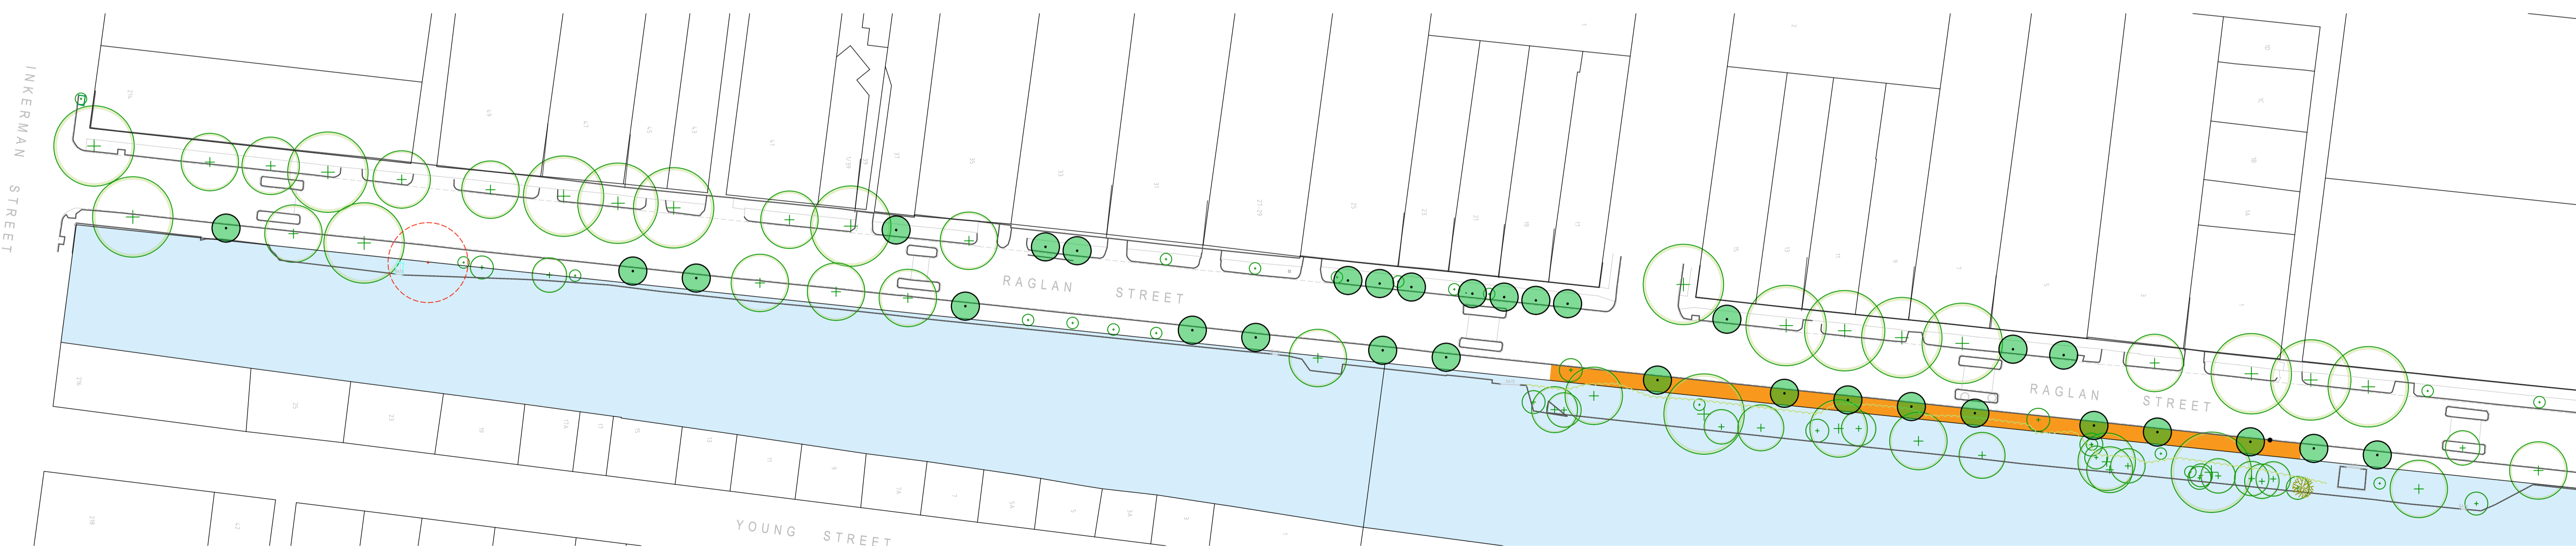

Bursaria spinosa, an example of one of the trees in the "Seed to Success Council Trialling Program"

Example of biodiverse understorey planting at Sandridge Beach

Example of biodiverse understorey planting at Danks Street Biolink

Greening Raglan Street, St Kilda East
Planting plan

April 2026

